

Public Engagement Day Programme

Thursday 14th of March at Oxford University Museum of Natural History Museum

09:30-10:00 (30 min)	Registration Desk Opens
10:00-10:25 (25 min)	Introduction to gene therapy	Simon Waddington
10:25-10:50 (25 min)	Introduction to stem cell therapy	Jo Mountford, Scottish National Blood Transfusion Service
15 minute break
11:05-11:30 (25 min)	Science of gene editing and therapeutic applications	Emma Morris, UCL
11:30-11:50 (20 min)	Live Polling
11:50-12:00 (10 min)	European Society for Gene and Cell Therapy - 5min video
12:00-13:30 (1h 30min)	Lunch, careers advice, meet the scientist, exhibitors etc.
13:30-13:55 (25 min)	Successful application of gene therapy to cure patients	Ralph Hector
13:55-14:20 (25 min)	Successful application of stem cell therapy to cure patients	Sian Harding
14:20-14:45 (25 min)	Engineering our body's natural defences to fight cancer	David Cole, Immunocore
15 minute break
15:00-15:25 (25 min)	Ethics of gene therapy and gene editing	John Harris
15:25-15:50 (25 min)	Patient/parent talk	Carol-Anne Partridge (CDKL5 UK)
15:50-16:10 (20 min)	Live polling and panel discussion	